

Stringfever

Thursday, February 16 at the Grand Opera House

Workshop: 4:00-4:45pm Concert: 7:00pm

Catch the Fever; Find the Cure!

With their electric instruments and live beat-boxing, Stringfever combines exceptional musical skill with a real talent for involving and engaging audiences. The Northeast Iowa School of Music is bringing this international string quartet to Dubuque for a concert and student workshop on February 16 at the Grand Opera House. Concert tickets are $12 for students and $20 for adults and are available at the Grand box office. Call (563) 588-1305 to charge tickets by phone or visit www.thegrandoperahouse.com to order online.

Unique features of the show include Stringfever's acclaimed version of "Bolero," with all four members playing one cello at the same time, and their signature finale, "The History of Music . . . in 5 minutes." Students will have the rare opportunity to see a preview of the concert in an educational presentation by the group at the afternoon workshop. This is not a masterclass. Students do not need to bring their instruments.

Stringfever is presented by the Northeast Iowa School of Music. Call (563) 690-0151 with questions.

STUDENT WORKSHOP FEE: $12
FREE when you show your concert ticket!

Student Name _____

Parent Name _____

Email Address _____ Add to NISOM email list

Address (street) _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Payment: ___$12 enclosed ___Ticket presented ___Will present ticket at workshop door ___Will-call ticket*

Return to Northeast Iowa School of Music: 2728 Asbury Rd, Suite 200, Dubuque, IA 52001

To redeem free admission with will-call tickets, register by February 13 and be sure will-call tickets are under either the parent or student name listed above*